CCF Cadet 100 Smallbore Competition

1. The CCF Cadet 100 Competition comprises of two rounds. For each round firers will have unlimited sighters, following which they must fire ten scoring shots at each of two targets with the following conditions:

- a. Round 1. To be fired on or before 02 Dec 20 and scores received by 07 Dec 20. Targets to be provided by units.
- b. Round 2. Open to the top 200 from Round 1, names will be advised by CCRS before 13 Dec 20; if equal scores match the competitor in 200th place then entry to Round 2 will include all equal scores. To be fired on or before 03 Mar 21 and scores received by 08 Mar 21. If less than 200 firers entry a representative percentage will qualify for round 2.

Firers must be on the strength of a CCF unit, and should be young enough to be able to fire both rounds of the competition as a cadet. If a competitor changes unit then they will still be eligible to compete for the unit from which they were entered.

2. Rules. The competition will be conducted under the rules of the NSRA, which may be found at <http://www.nsra.co.uk/index.php/home/downloads/category/82-rules>.

3. Rifles. The competition is to be shot using any .22 target rifle and sling as approved for cadet use using issued ammunition only.

4. Clothing. Working dress with shooting glove, a sling holding device maybe attached to the jacket in line with School's Meeting rules.

5. Targets and ranges. 1989 Series – Short Range targets for the appropriate distance (15, 20, 25 yards, 25m) must be used. Indoor or outdoor ranges may be used.

6. Target verification. For each round the following procedures must be used for target verification: Two stickers per competitor will be supplied by CCRS. One sticker should be placed on the back of each match target, covering an aiming marks.

7. Target Scoring. Scoring will be in accordance with NSRA rules. The following means of scoring should be followed, in order of preference:

- a. An NSRA Class A or B scorer (or the overseas or ISSF equivalent), if independent from the unit, may score the cards on behalf of CCRS and scores advised by email without returning cards. Cards must be retained by the scorer for a random quality check by CCRS.

b. If a scorer is not available, cards must not be gauged, and should be returned to the CCF scorer(s) by the date shown for each round.

8. Witnesses. Shooting Masters are to witness all cards. Witness certificates will be sent with stickers.
